

Nrityangana

Nrityangana, as the official classical and folk-dance society of DTU, organises Anushthaan, the annual classical and folk dance competition of the institution, under the Engifest umbrella each year. The society also performs at the inauguration of Engifest as well as Anushthaan each year.

Institution level events organised by Nrityangana:

February 2013 – Anushthaan 2013

February 2014 – Anushthaan 2014

February 2015 – Anushthaan 2015

February 2016 – Anushthaan 2016

February 2017 – Anushthaan 2017

February 2018 – Anushthaan 2018

Anushthaan is the annual inter-college classical and folk dance competition organized every year. The competition is further divided into Folk dance competition (group participation) and Classical and semi-classical dance competition (solo and duet participation). It accepts participation from various universities and colleges all over North-India. An average of 60 teams register for the event per year and over 20 teams get selected after an online video shortlisting round. A wide range of dance forms such as Ghoomar, Bhangra, Garba-Dandiya, Bharatnatyam, Kathak, Manipuri and many more are witnessed during this colourful event. Honourable gurus and dancers are invited from prominent institutions as the jury for the competition. The judges of Anushthaan 2018 being Guru Shikha Khare (Senior Kathak Guru at Kathak Kendra) and S. Avtar Singh Dhillon (Well acclaimed Bhangra Guru). Further, Nrityangana fetched out for sponsorships for the smooth functioning of the event in the year 2018 from Odhni (a retail shop in lehengas and sarees), the banner of which can be seen in the following photographs.
