NOTICE

Criteria for continuous evaluation of sessional components namely CWS and PRS, MTE, ETE and PRE for courses being offered in even semester 2023-24.

All the faculty members involved in teaching/mentoring courses are required to take note of the provisions contained in R.1(B). 15 (course Evaluation) of the ordinance, so that the teaching and evaluation of CWS and PRS, MTE, ETE and PRE and END term examinations is carried out accordingly.

The relevant extract of R.1(B). 15 (Course Evaluation) of the Ordinance is reproduced here in under for reference:

- (i) A student shall be evaluated for his/her academic performance in a course through tutorials, practicals, design studio work, homework, assignments, term papers, field work/industrial training, seminars, quizzes as CWE and PRS, MTE, ETE and PRE as specified in the Scheme of teaching and examination.
- (ii) The distribution of weights for each component shall be announced by the course Coordinator at the beginning of the course, subject to such stipulations as are given in the Scheme of Teaching and Examination for a given program.
- (iii) The courses offered in a semester shall be continuously assessed and evaluated to judge the permanence of a student.
- (iv) The criteria for continuous evaluation of any subject shall be declared in the very first week of commencement of the classes.

The course Co-ordinators/Mentors are advised to frame a well-defined policy for evaluation of sessional components CWE & PRS for their respective courses and convey the same to the concerned students at the beginning of the semester.

A soft copy of same should be forwarded to the undersigned at deanacademicpg@dtu.ac.in latest by 08.01.2024.
